

ENERGY INSECURITY AND PUBLIC HEALTH: GOING FURTHER THROUGH CROSS-SECTOR COLLABORATION

November 11, 2020 – Second Workgroup Meeting

INTER
DISCIPLINARY
RESEARCH
LEADERS

Community Engagement: Activities (Short and Long Term)

- Communication Plan - Promote and Introduce the Project
 - Mission, Vision, Logo, Flyers/Infographics, Website
- Community Engagement
 - Establish Energy Insecurity workgroup (Community and Stakeholders)
 - Regular working/training meetings (monthly or more often)
 - Plan, decide, and implement together best workable solutions
- Collect Data
 - Community Member and Stakeholder surveys
- Design Energy Insecurity Index (EII)
 - EII is helpful in identifying vulnerable neighborhoods
 - Initiate actions - SOLUTIONS

Workgroup: Role and Next Steps

- Foster cross-sector dialogue and dismantle silos
- Create platform for collaborative solutions
 - Design challenges
- Receive feedback in interim milestones of the project
 - Community Member Survey – Support Community Funds
 - Development of Mission, Vision, and Logo
 - Development of Website

Success of Community Engagement

Assumptions

- Community members will be open to join the workgroup
- Stakeholders will be open to join the workgroup
- Create strong longstanding collaboration
- Learn from each other
- Maximize resources by being creative
- Able to enact policy change
- Embark on new opportunities

External Factors

- COVID-19 Pandemic
- Depends on 4Cs
 - Collaboration
 - Communication
 - Coordination
 - Cooperation