

Forensic Pathology Fellowship Applicant Survey

Name:
Academic year you are applying for:
Pathology Residency Program Name:
Number of months of prior autopsy experience:
Number of months of additional autopsy experience anticipated prior to finishing residency:
Total number of autopsies performed so far:
Number of autopsies that were forensic cases:

What evisceration and dissection techniques do you have experience with? [choose all that apply]

- Organ-by-organ
- En bloc
- No experience yet

What is your current skill level for autopsy evisceration?

1. I have no experience yet
2. I can eviscerate well with frequent prompting
3. I can eviscerate well with minimal prompting
4. I can eviscerate well without prompting, but occasionally may seek guidance
5. I can eviscerate well without prompting or guidance and can teach/prompt others

What is your current skill level for autopsy organ dissections?

1. I have no experience yet
2. I can dissect organs well with frequent prompting
3. I can dissect organs well with minimal prompting
4. I can dissect organs well without prompting, but occasionally may seek guidance
5. I can dissect organs well without prompting or guidance and can teach/prompt others

Which autopsy documentation techniques do you have experience with? [choose all that apply]

- Dictation from a template
- Dictation (free form without need of a template)
- Filling out form templates
- Use of body diagrams

Which of these texts have you read? [choose all that apply]

- Dolinak et al – Forensic Pathology
- Spitz and Fisher’s Medicolegal Investigation of Death
- DiMaio’s Forensic Pathology
- DiMaio Gunshot Wounds
- Knight’s Forensic Pathology
- Collins, et al – Forensic Pathology of Infancy and Childhood
- Robbins and Cotran Pathologic Basis of Disease